Why 3 v 3?

- Fewer players on court means more touches per player. Everyone is involved in the game.
- No transition game. No fast break, coast to coast baskets—nothing but fundamental half court offense.
- No pressing, gimmick defenses or strange traps.
- Easier to get 3 kids for a game than 5. This is a big advantage during vacation time.
- It's fun and something different.

3 on 3 Leagues

The 3 on 3 leagues are for players entering grades 4-12 (grades as of Sep 2017). The goal is to have a separate bracket for each grade, but depending on registrations, grade levels may be combined. Coaches will be notified before the season if this happens and will be allowed to opt-out of the league.

There will be separate brackets for boys and girls.

- Season Tues June 13- Wed Aug 2
- 14 game regular season schedule.
- Single elimination play-offs on Tues and Wed Aug 1, 2. All teams make playoffs.
- Half court games
- 20 minute games, running clock, stops last 2 minutes
- 2 games scheduled each week, back to back or 30-60 min break between and against different teams.
- Max 6 players/team

- One ref/game
- League champions will receive T-Shirts.
- Boys games will primarily be on Tuesdays. Girls games primarily on Wednesdays.
- Games between 5:30-9:30

Benefits of entering the In the Zone Summer Leagues:

- All games are indoors at In the Zone and our building is:

AIR CONDITIONED!!

Plus: no gnats, sun, wind, Thunderstorms or rain.

- For the rest of the family, the batting cages, the fitness center and the snack bar will be open during the games.

Uniforms: Every player on a team needs to have the same color shirt with numbers clearly visible.

Technical Fouls: Players receiving a total of 4 technical fouls during the season will be kicked out of the league. Teams receiving a total of 8 technical fouls (which includes technical fouls given to individual players) during the season will be removed from the league. No refunds.

Miscellaneous: There should be enough time between games to allow for a 5 minute warm-up for each team; however, warm-up time is not guaranteed and teams are not allowed to warm up on the other court. Coaches, managers and parents are expected to adhere to the standard policies of In the Zone and abide by these rules.

Registration Fees:

$425/team

A $100 deposit is required to reserve your team's spot. The registration form, final roster and the balance of the entry fee is due before playing your team's third game. ENTRY DEADLINE is 9:00 pm on Tues June 6th. Current ITZ AAU players 40% discount off their portion of the registration fee.

The registration fee includes referee fees, court time and clock operator/scorer but not practice time. Teams may also receive discounted court time for practice.

Want to play but need a team?

Individual players can register and will be placed on a team if there are enough individual registrations in that division. Cost is $120/player. There is no guarantee these players will get put on a team.
